Dear friends and colleagues,

During the past academic year, the Indiana University Retirees Association (IURA) served you and the campus community in several ways. We offered six program meetings in person and via Zoom. We hosted a holiday luncheon at the Bloomington Country Club and an end-of-the-academic year luncheon at Meadowood Retirement Community. As in past years, IURA provided significant funding as a participant in the campus United Way campaign.

This year we will continue in-person program meetings with a Zoom option. Our first meeting will be held in the Peterson Room at the IU Foundation's Showalter House on the SR45/46 Bypass on Wednesday, Sept. 11, at 2 p.m. Our speaker will be Peg Faimon, founding dean of the Eskenazi School of Art, Architecture + Design. This location features plenty of free parking. No IU parking permits are required, and the building is fully accessible.

All retired faculty, staff, and their surviving spouses or partners are eligible for membership. The IURA is entirely self-funded. Your annual dues, a modest $30 for an individual and $40 for a couple, entitle you to attendance at program meetings and eight editions of our excellent monthly newsletter to keep you current on social activities, benefits, service opportunities, speakers, news, and matters of general interest. You also will receive the annual membership directory, which many retirees have found helpful in contacting former associates, who often have changes in their contact information.

Please complete the 2024-2025 membership form on the reverse side of this letter and return it together with your check. Your support of the IURA provides a valuable connection with the university and the campus community.

I look forward to seeing you soon!

Perry J. Maull
IURA President 2024-2025
